

HIGHLIGHTS OF PROGRAM

WHY CHOOSE A MASTER OF PUBLIC HEALTH AT NDSU?

- » The NDSU MPH program offers flexibility to complete coursework in person or online.
- » Classes are small, ranging from 10-25 students, allowing for close collaboration with faculty and individual attention students won't find elsewhere.
- » The program is CEPH accredited, meeting rigorous national standards for public health training.

WHAT'S REQUIRED TO APPLY TO THE NDSU MPH PROGRAM?

- » Applicants must have a 3.0 GPA or higher.
- » Applicants are required to hold a bachelor's degree from an accredited university, transcripts, two letters of recommendation, a personal statement and English proficiency scores (if applicable).

HOW LONG WILL IT TAKE TO COMPLETE THE MPH PROGRAM?

- » An MPH degree can be earned through full-time or part-time study. Full-time students can complete the 42-credit program in two years. Part-time students can complete the program in three to five years.

WHEN CAN I START THE MPH PROGRAM?

- » Applications are reviewed on a rolling basis throughout the year. Students may be admitted and start in the fall, spring or summer. Application deadlines vary by term.

OTHER PUBLIC HEALTH OPTIONS AT NDSU

- » Public Health certificates
 - General public health - 12 credits
 - Infection prevention - 12 credits
 - Maternal and child health - At least 9 credits
- » PharmD - MPH Dual Degree
- » Undergraduate public health minor
 - 20 credits
- » Accelerated B.S. to MPH
 - Complete a bachelor's and master's degree in as little as 5 years
 - Must be an approved plan. Visit ndsuh.edu/publichealth for more information.

PLAN A VISIT

Get a first-hand view and receive tailored information about how we can help you begin your public health career. Email for more information.

Learn more or contact us today
ndsuh.edu/publichealth
 email: ndsuh.publichealth@ndsuh.edu

APPLY NOW »

